Sir.

In reply to your letter of yesterday marked "C 21,715", I have the honor to inform you, the six Couleu boys can be taken into our school without increase of our employe force, and that the extra expense to the Govt, for food, clothing and such other incidentals of School supplies &c as might be necessary need not exceed $125.⁰⁰ per annum each.

Very respectfully

Your obedient servant

R.H. Pratt
