I have the honor to invite your attention to the letter enclosed herewith from Oscar Warden, a pupil at the Carlisle Indian School, addressed to his father Martin Fretty Back. His father requests that his son may be returned to him to assist him in his work at home, as he is now without any one to help him and is not able to do his work alone.

I concur in this request and I recommend that it be granted.

I am, sir, very respectfully

Your obedient servant,

Cheryl Pemey
Acting U. S. Indian Agent.

Dear Father: - \ Oct 16th 1893.

You cannot imagine my feeling when I read your letter my heart was completely broken with full of sorrows to know that brother George has die. on account of this brother's death. you are now left alone. and you have now no one to do your work or to take care of your herd of cattle or horses. so if you can make arrangement with the Agent if he can help you up in regard to my returning to you. so that I may be able to take care of your cattle ~~of~~ and horses.

I have now been in the East almost five years and wish to further my education little more but I see that you are now left alone and perhaps you are now not able to do much of your work for this reason I wish to come home.
Write as early as convenient.

I remain ever

Oscar Harder.
