Dear Mr. Stauffer:

When Carlisle Indian School was turned over to the War Department there were sent to the Indian Office a beaded buck-skin coat, a very old gun, a model of a three-masted ship, and a model of a battle ship.

Miss Nellie R. Denny has suggested that you may know where these originally came from and any history which may be attached thereto.

A franked envelope, requiring no postage, is inclosed.

Very truly yours,

C. J. Hawke
Chief Clerk.

Dear Mr. Hawke,

Sorry I cannot help you out but I know nothing about the history of the above articles. I remember seeing the Battleship model but never heard where it came from. It seems to me an Indian boy made it.
Very Cordially C. M. Stauffer

Sir:-

I have your inquiry regarding a beaded coat, a model battleship and an old gun, all of which were sent to your office from the Carlisle Indian School.

I am sorry I cannot give you the information you want, about the coat and gun. The battleship was the work of one of <sup>our</sup> pupils, I think Walter Bigfire Winnebago, Nebraska.

Perhaps Miss Bessie Beach, now librarian at Chillicothe could help you. To save

Miss Nellie R. Denny, Carlisle, Pa.

Dear Madam:

At the time of the abolishment of the Carlisle Indian School the following articles were sent to this Office:

One buck-skin beaded coat; one model of a three-mastered battleship; one very ancient gun.

Will you please advise the Office as to where these articles came from and any history which may be attached thereto.

A franked envelope is inclosed for your reply.

Very truly yours,

C. Hauke

Chief Clerk.

*Miss Beach - I could not give the information wanted and wrote Mr. Hauke. I thought you would and that I had sent this letter to you. Can you? The battleship was made by one of our boys, Walter Biggie, I think. Sincerely
Nellie R. Denny.*

I have a letter from Miss Beach saying she cannot give the information. She suggests that C. M. Stanffer, Coysville, Pa. might know about the coat and gun.

Respectfully

Nellie R. Denny

If you please advise the Office as to where these articles came from and any history which

may be attached thereto.

A franked envelope is inclosed for your reply.

Very truly yours,
