Death of Katie Cochran.

Oct. 26th, 1915.

The Honorable,
Commissioner of Indian Affairs,
Washington, D. C.

FILED BY C. P. F.

Sir:

I respectfully report that late on Saturday night, October the 23rd, there occurred in our School Hospital the death of Katie Cochran, an eighteen year old full-blood Pueblo girl who was enrolled at Carlisle on November the 28th of 1911.

On July 9th of this year the girl had to be brought in to the school from her Outing home and at no time after she was admitted to the School Hospital was it believed advisable to let her undertake the long trip to her father's home at Bibo, N. M.

The cause of death was tuberculosis in spite of all that was done to arrest the progress of the disease and to rebuild the girl's strength.

This morning at nine o'clock funeral services were conducted in the St. Patrick's Church in Carlisle, attended by all Catholic students, all Pueblo students and the deceased's classmates as well as employees of this School. In accordance with a telegraphic request received from Superintendent Lonergan's office at Albuquerque, N. M., the body was shipped to the father's home at Bibo, N. M., by prepaid express.

Very respectfully,

HKM.

Acting Superintendent.
