To the Hon. Commissioner of Indian Affairs,
Washington D. C.

Dear Sir:

Your favor of recent date offering me a transfer to the Stadsenorth school Nevada, has been received.

I trust you may not think me ungrateful if I decline your kindness.
I am not very strong and fear the effects of that climate.

I very much prefer to remain here until fall; then if a vacancy occurs either for a cook or assist-matron in one of the states named in my letter of application, I will be glad to go. Thank you sincerely for your interest in me.

Respectfully,
Ella Pickett.
