Thinks it would be best for Charles Dagenett to return to his agency

Hon. W. A. Jones,
Commissioner of Indian Affairs,
Washington, D. C.

My dear Sir :-

Charles Dagenett is here and is just starting out to finish up his share of the visiting of our out boys. Mr. Dagenett is very anxious to remain here and take charge of our boys' outing when Dr. Eastman goes, but feels afraid to do it on account of his health, and says he would feel much safer to go back to his agency as you propose. Under all the circumstances I think perhaps it would be better for him to do that.

Very respectfully,

Major 10th Cavalry, Supt.
