CARLISLE, PA. Feb. 13, 1907.

The Honorable,
Commissioner of Indian Affairs,
Washington, D.C.

Sir:-

Arthur Elliot Sutton, one of our pupils who graduates this year, desires a position as Disciplinarian at some small school, and I recommend him for such position. Our Commencement exercises will take place April 3rd and 4th, and he will be ready for duty any time after his graduation. I write this to have his name put on file as an applicant.

Very respectfully,

Major 11th Cavalry,
Superintendent.
