My dear Mrs. Metzger:

In reply to your letter
if December 29, the Carlisle School was closed September 1, 1918 and turned over to the War Department for hospital purposes.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) C. F. Hauke
Acting Assistant Commissioner.

Commissioner of Indian Affairs,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:

Will you kindly tell me if the Carlisle Indian School has been disbanded ^{and} if so, why?

Sorry to bother you,
but have been unable to procure the desired information elsewhere.

File, Lu

may wait for your indulgence in a prompt reply, as the question must be answered at a club meeting next week.

Thanking you for your courtesy

Yours cordially,

Erz. Paul Metzger
