Sir:

In reference to Office letter of the tenth instant returning pay roll in duplicate, submitted by Moses Friedman, as Superintendent of this School, covering services of certain employees from February 1 to 12, inclusive, and irregular laborers employed on days during that time, I have to respectfully make answer thereto as follows:

CARLISLE

No. 3. Claude M. Stauffer, Musical Director. Inasmuch as this service cannot be paid on this roll, a claim voucher is herewith submitted.

165

No. 25. Clive K. Ballard, farmer. The rate of pay has been corrected to read $730 per annum instead of $780 per annum as submitted.

No. 61. Maude H. Stauffer, Teacher, temporary. The report of leave of absence without pay of the regular teacher, Sallie E. Hagan, was not submitted until the close of the month, consequently this probably did not reach the Office in time for consideration with the pay roll. The amounts authorized have been paid to the employees and the pay roll will be taken up as a voucher to my cash account for the current quarter.

Very respectfully,

Oscar H. Lipps
Supervisor in Charge.

sir:

There is inclosed herewith a payroll in duplicate submitted by Moses Friedman as Superintendent Carlisle School, covering the services of certain employees from February 1 to 12, inclusive, and irregular laborers employed on days during that time.

Said roll has been examined and compared with the records of this office and found correct as to names, periods of service and rates of compensation, with the following exceptions:

No. 5. Claude M. Stauffer, Musical Director.

This service cannot be paid for on this roll, but a claim for the same should be submitted.

No. 25. Clive K. Ballard, Farmer.

The rate of pay should be $720 per annum instead of $780 per annum.

No. 61. Maud H. Stauffer, Teacher, temporary.

The regular teacher, Sallie E. Hagan, has not been reported as absent on leave "without pay" during the time covered by this service.

You are authorized to pay the employees the amounts due them, and include the payroll as a voucher to your cash account for the current quarter.

Respectfully,

(Signed) E. B. Meritt

Assistant Commissioner.
