File 820

OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,
WASHINGTON.

Subject:

November 18, 1907.

Expulsion of Leo Starr.

Superintendent,
Indian Industrial School,
Carlisle, Pennsylvania.

Sir :

In accordance with your request of the 14th instant, your action in dismissing Leo Starr, a pupil in your school from Shawnee Agency, Oklahoma, for bad conduct, has been approved.

You should notify Supt. Thackery of the dismissal of this young man and give him the reasons therefor. On account of his bad record at Carlisle he should not be admitted into any other Government school.

Very respectfully,

(Signed) G. F. Larrabee.

Acting Commissioner.
