by Alice E. Morris.

July 26th, 1909.

The Honorable,
Commissioner of Indian Affairs,
Washington, D. C.

Sir:

Referring to Office letter dated July 24th and marked "Education - Administration, 55207-1909, A.V.S.", with enclosure from Alice Morris, I respectfully report that she desired information concerning the "Agreement for Commutation of Perpetual Annuities", a copy of which was forwarded her for her signature some time ago. A new copy has recently been forwarded and after explaining the matter to her today, she signed the same and requested me to inform the Office that no further information is necessary.

Very respectfully,

M. Friedman

Superintendent.

DEPT. OF INDIAN AFFAIRS

Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

Dear Sir,

A letter was received from my parents in which they stated that they wanted me to sign some papers.

I dont believe in signing papers unless I know what they for. So I thought I had better write to the department and find out what these papers were for.

The way I understood my letter it seem as though it was arrangements concerning with the treaty of the Indians.

It must be a promise of some kind that has been broken
I would like for you to explain the matter to me, so I can explain it to my parents.

I know they never take time to ask questions I suppose they sign every paper that came in their way.

So if you think it will be best for my people and - myself. I will kindly take your advice.

I remain yours Respectfully
Alice C. Morris
