letter.

January 11th, 1910.

The Honorable,
Commissioner of Indian Affairs,
Washington, D. C.

Sir:

I transmit herewith a letter from a young Indian who has been given shelter at this school since the 10th instant.

He was gathered up by the police of the borough and after being given lodging at the city lock-up the Chief of Police sent him out to the school. He was badly in need of food and in worse need of clothing and shelter and I have given instructions that he shall be cared for until further instructions are received from your Office.

The young man has impressed me quite favorably and the tale he tells seems to be a plausible one.

Very respectfully,

M. Friedman
