My Friend:-

Replying to your letter of December 2nd, you are advised that the Carlisle Indian School has been turned over to the War Department and is now a hospital for the rehabilitation of disabled soldiers, and will not again be opened as an Indian School. The Office hopes you will be able to make other arrangements for completing your education.

Your friend,

Assistant Commissioner.

Mr. Cat Sells

Commissioner of Indian Affairs, Department of the Interior,
Washington,

Dear Sir:

You will perhaps be very surprised at receiving this letter
but I have heard several rumors quoted by persons in authority, to the effect that Carlisle Indian School had reopened as an Indian school again. I wish that you would tell me the truth regarding the matter.

I was a junior at Carlisle when the school closed and I would like nothing better than a diploma which I could get with two years more of study. I came home in the spring of 1918 and while home receiving notice of the transfer and closing of the school.

Wishing to hear from you in regards to my re-entering school, I remain as ever yours

Truly,
Edwin C. Allen
