Run-away pupil.

The Honorable,
Commissioner of Indian Affairs,
Washington, D. C.

Sir:

George King was located at Pottsville, Pa. and was returned to the school last evening. The mother of the boy, Mrs. L. S. King, is being informed to that effect today.

The boy seems to have been well cared for and is none the worse because of his experience.

Yours very truly,

Encl.

My friend:-

The Office has received your letter of December 7, asking that your son, George E. King, who you say ran away from the Carlisle School, be located as soon as possible.

The letter of Superintendent Friedman which you say you enclosed was not received here. However, the matter will be referred to Superintendent Friedman. If any information comes to you which would be helpful to the Carlisle authorities in locating the boy you should notify them at once.

When boys run away they usually try to cover their tracks and it is often a difficult matter to ascertain their whereabouts, but the effort to find your son will be continued.

Very respectfully,

Chief Clerk.

FOR FILE

Sir:-

There is enclosed for your information a letter received from L. S. King, Irving, New York, also a copy of Office letter to him concerning his son, George, who it appears has run away from the School.

When the boy has been located, you will of course advise his parents and notify the Office, returning the father's letter.

Very respectfully,
(Signed) J. H. Dortch,

Chief Education Division.
