Your letter May twenty-fifth and telegram tenth. Have taken matter up informally with Shipping Board and am advised they have no objection your plan to have wages of boys over thirty cents an hour turned over to you; also say a similar plan is now in effect connection with white employees. You are authorized to make all necessary arrangements with the shipbuilding company.

Mr. John Francis,
Supt. Carlisle School.

My dear Mr. Francis:

I have your letter of May 25, advising me of the tentative arrangement which you have made with the American International Shipbuilding Company for employment of some of your boys during the summer season. I think this is an excellent plan and shall be glad to have you carry out your arrangement.

I think you can make this arrangement yourself, either through correspondence or by a personal conference with ^{the} representative of the corporation, as you think best, and there appears no reason why the company cannot withhold all moneys due the boys above 30¢ per hour, and remit such moneys to you to be taken up for the students in the usual manner. You can also arrange for the lodging and meals for the boys as you suggest. If any further assistance is required here, you may advise me.

Sincerely yours,
