Johnson Owl writes from Swayney, N. C., that he is married and is a merchant-farmer. He owns a comfortable little home, a team of horses, several cows and number of pigs. In his letter to Mr. Friedman he states: "I am trying to live a sober, industrious life; what little money I earn is well spent; all of my earnings are through hard labor.
I remember the saying "Labor Conquers All things" and find inspiration in it. Since returning to my people I have tried to be an example by showing them that there is a right way of spending money, for, like other places there are many temptations around here, but I avoid them all."

Dear Sir,

Please find enclosed $1.25-in currency and stamps, for which you will please place my name on the roll with the subscribers of the magazine and the Arrow that darts from the Indian himself each week.
He knows not where it lands, but still it pierces the minds of the Indian Readers and causes them to meditate over their young school days spent at the place where the Arrow darted from.

Yours Respectfully
Johnson Owl.

Dear friend:-

It is my purpose before long to issue an outing number of the Arrow and Red Man. Among other facts concerning the outing, I want very much to publish some expressions from our graduates and ex-students as to what the outing has meant to them.

I understand you have had some outing experience. Would you be willing to write me a letter giving the interesting facts about your Carlisle outing and naming any special benefits you have derived from it, especially those which have helped you in after years.

If you can do this, I will be glad to hear from you soon.

With my best wishes to you, I am

Very truly yours

Superintendent.

Dear friend:- I wrote you on the 9th of January asking your assistance in getting out an Outing number of the Arrow and Red Man. I was especially anxious to get a letter from you as I know you have used your outing experience to good advantage. Can you not write a few words? I want to get this paper out early in April.

Wishing you continued success, I am Very truly yours

Superintendent.
