Dear friend:-

Your letter asking for a class picture has been received and given attention. I am sorry to inform you that I cannot find the picture you want. When you were a student here, we kept quite a bunch of pictures for sale and for distribution but most of these have been disposed of. We have some of the old negatives stored away some place and if you want one of these pictures real bad, I might look through these sometimes and see what I can find. This is a very busy time and I cannot promise you that I will do this until next winter. Let me know if this is satisfactory.

You would better remind me again early next fall.

With my best wishes, I am

Very truly yours

Class 1890.
