11. Have you done anything for the betterment of your people? Write fully.

I cannot say that I have done anything for the betterment of my people because they are all educated as well as I am, and there seems to be little, or no chance at all, for a returned student to work for the uplifting of our people.

12. Tell me anything else of interest connected with your life.

The returned students from here, never do any thing to help their people. The graduates and returned students do not even take interest enough in each other to organize a society or even hold a yearly meeting of returned school children and graduates to show that they at least have made an effort towards getting an education. They had a returned students meeting two years ago and it was enjoyed very much but they don't seem to care about keeping up the association.
