Dear Mr. Friedman.

With all the good things of Christmas, was your letter of good cheer. Thanking you much.

I thought - Carlisle and its friends had forgotten me long ago, as this is about the only letter I have ever written back there save to the bright - little paper, The Arrow. I surely appreciate the footing, which Carlisle has taught me to stand on though I have been very humble in proclaiming its goodness.

Then you wrote I was in Spokane but work slackened and wages was cut so it hasten my failing always, to take at such times, a vacation. I will go back next-spring. I have been following locomotive repairing with ^{this} company three years - and can say they have always paid me more for similar work than lots of the older hands.

Carlisle still stands foremost among the great football teams and I often see much of its cleanly sports, though in parties I hear of the great school often they not knowing I am from there. Thereby it is surely accomplishing its aims to the extremes of the United States.

Sincerely Yours,
Geo. H. Ferris,
Portland
Ore.
