Button up your coat! Colds are still in the air. Put on your over-shoes!

The bleachers look cold.

Which are you a pessimist or a 'possumist? Mrs. Bakeless and Master John are visiting in Milroy.

Miss Lida Starding has been teaching for a few days as substitute.

James Miller has entered the printing-office and is learning to set type.

The deepest snow of the season came Monday night, about eight inches.

Miss Cochran has been confined to her room for a few days with a hard cold.

Major Pratt spent Monday in Washington attending to Government business.

Miss Forster spent Thanksgiving in Harrisburg, among friends and relatives.

Mr. Mason Pratt and family of Steelfor were over for the family dinner on Thanks giving.

The athletic field has on a robe of white, underneath which the grass is taking new courage.

Fred Smith, Miss Sarah Smith's brother from the Educational Home, Philadelphia, has entered our school.

Last week's Carlisle Gazette had a good account of the school The Gazette is a weekly, clean, clear, and newsy.

Robert Bruce, who came from the Ft. Shaw school, promises to become prominent as a soloist on the Euphonium. He charmed all his hearers Saturday night.

Mr. Cornelius left for Washington on Saturday, but he may come back again, bringing the Cheyenne and Arapahoe chiefs with him before they leave for the West.

The printing office was the recipient, this week, of a beautiful half-tone picture of the Court of Honor, Philadelphia Peace Jubilee, compliments of the Windsor Hotel.

The weather that followed the first snow on Saturday was the kind that makes our New England teachers happy. The air had a crispness and the snow a squeak they enjoy.

Mr. Cornelius visited the Susan Longstreth Literary Society after his talk to the Invincibles on Friday evening, and was called upon for a speech, to which he responded most happily.

The Girard College boys through Harry S. Terry extend congratulations to the Carlisle Indian boys for their success this year in football, especially for defeating the Illinois University in the last game.

All the new instruments of the band are here but two, and some are very strange looking things, yet are handsome as well as the very best, and with proper blowing they bring forth sweet sounds. In a very few weeks we expect the band to quite surpass itself. Already the boys make music that is pleasing to listen to, but practice, practice, practice is going to rub off some rough edges. Miss E. Hazelton Wilson of Washington, D. C., is visiting her sister Miss Wilson of the girls' quarters force.

Mrs. Butler's son and daughter Jarvis and Miss Bessie left for Philadelphia on Sunday, and began school on Monday. They will have happy recollections of their first visit to Carlisle for a long time to come.

To-night the Misses Cutter and Luckenbach will visit the Invincibles, Misses Ericson and Shaffner the Standards, and Misses Forster and Miles the Susans, unless a change has been made. The Man-on-the-band stand believes he saw the two last named at the Susans last week. Perhaps there was a trade on account of the indisposition of some of

We are pained to have to record the death of one of our number, an Apache boy, Naneco Antonio who came to us from the Ft. Lewis school, in Colorado. He died of Tubercular Meningitis, and was buried by Roman Catholic rite, on Sunday last, Rev. Ganss, of St. Patrick's Church, Carlisle, officiating. He gave a very impressive talk at the service.

sociable on Saturday night for carrying four potatoes one at a time on a teaspoon across the gymnasium and depositing them in a small ring, sooner than any of several others who tried. A splendid game of basket-ball was played the same evening. The sociable altogether was enjoyed, as are always these monthly meetings of friends, cousins, sisters and other fellows' sisters.

We are informed that the pupils' dinner on Thanksgiving was under the sole supervision of Miss Miles, who made out the Menu and personally directed every detail. The baker boys with William Colombe in the lead roasted the turkeys, and deserve great credit for the toothsomeness of the roast. To Mr. and Mrs. Dandridge and boys of the culinary department, to the dining-room girls, and to all who had a hand in it, the feasters are thankful for the splendid dinner.

The young man from Porto Rico has arrived. He is about 16, speaks very little English, but is fast making friends among the California and New Mexico boys who speak Spanish. He will soon learn English. In his first interview with Major Pratt he volunteered this information: "Me Boston; Me Concord; Me come Carlisle." When he saw it snowing this week he thought it was ice cream, such as he had been treated to in Boston, coming down from the clouds, "but this no sweet." His name is Juan Sultano, now an Americano.

Mr. Cornelius' talk in the Invincible Society last Friday night was thoroughly appreciated. Chester was the first President of the Invincibles, and he told of some of the difficulties through which they had to pass. The society had no such comfortable, well-lighted hall then, and everything had to be learned. He spoke in tender memory of the lamented Howard Logan, who was at that time an active member and one of the brightest young men the school ever had as a student. He complimented the society on the advance it had made, and closed with some excellent advice.
