SOCIAL & PERSONAL

Among Carlisle's visitors last week were Samuel Bortem, of near, Carlisle Springs. We are pleased to see him, and hope he has just recovered from a critical illness. He is very active for his age, 83 years, and is working about his farm as usual. His sister, Mrs. Bortem, who was dangerously ill, is recovering. She is past 82.

Mrs. Anna Greaney, of North Bedford street, was struck in the eye by a switch, on Saturday evening, and, as she feared that she may lose the use of that eye.

Phil T. Taylor, of the upper end, was a Carlisle visitor on Monday.

Mrs. Henry Gardner, of Penn street, shows little improvement.

Mr. Mel Bannister returned from Philadelphia, on Saturday night, and with his family has moved into the A. J. Spotts house on North Bedford street. His father-in-law, R. H. Murray, will have his home with Mr. and Mrs. Bannister.

Daniel Givler, of East Penn street, has gone to Philadelphia, where he expects to locate.

J. C. Grooms, the druggist, is slowly improving.

Contractor Porter was in Harrisburg on Wednesday.

See two girls in another column gathering grapes for Spier's wine. Read all about them. Spier's wine is unexcelled by any in the world.

George Zinn has been ill for several days past.

President Reed, of Dickinson, will lecture at Chambersburg, on Saturday night.

C. M. Lippert this week attended a meeting of the Pennsylvania Mutual Indemnity Company, at Philadelphia. Mr. Lippert is a stockholder and director in that company.

German Baptist Meeting at Roanoke, Va. The annual meeting of the German Baptist Brethren will be held this week at Roanoke, Va., May 18th-24th. For this occasion the Cumberland Valley Railroad will sell excursion tickets to Roanoke, Va., from all points on their line at one single fare for the round trip. Tickets will be good for the round trip, May 17th to 22nd inclusive, and good to return until May 25, 1909, inclusive.

For further information as to time of trains, etc., inquire of local Ticket Agents or write to H. A. Riddle, General Passenger Agent, Cumberland Valley Railroad, Chambersburg, Pa.

The Borough Wins. Judge Biddle has decided the case of the Borough of Carlisle vs. The Cumberland Valley Electric Passenger Railway in favor of the Borough. The suit was brought to compel the trolley company to pay a percentage of its earnings upon the line between Carlisle and Bolling Springs. The trolley company held that the borough is entitled only to part of the earnings of the line within the Borough limits. The amount in dispute was $250.25.

State Council O. U. A. M. The Cumberland county delegates to the State Council O. U. A. M., which met on Monday, May 1st, are: Bolling Springs, P. 132; J. H. Corns, Bolling Springs; Plainfield, No. 163, J. A. Hasinger, Plainfield; Letort, No. 205, R. M. Spyer, Carlisle; Cumberland Valley, No. 257, G. D. Dunlin, Shippensburg; Dickinson, No. 263, Daniel Wagnor, Letort; Integrity, No. 197, S. C. Wagnor, Mechanicsburg; Downstown, No. 25, J. L. Broucher, Downstown.

Judge Edle at the Oxy Trial. Judge Edle put in appearance, together with Judge Biddle, of Carlisle, the President Judge of the Cumberland court. District Attorney Bethune came in just as the case was slowly drawing out the forum usually attended when Court is opened. At ten o'clock Court was in session, and after glancing around for a little while, finally turned around and laid the jury good morning. It was a good natured thing, and it caused District Attorney Bethune to smile slightly.

The Mt. Holly Case. The Superior Court has reversed the decision of the court below in the case of the Mt. Holly Water Company against that borough. The effect will be that the borough will not get a 25 per cent discount on its bill of four hundred dollars for five hydrants.

A New Firm. Logan & Rupp have just opened a real estate and insurance office in Carlisle. The new firm consists of Wm. Logan, of Philadelphia, and Emory W. Rupp, of Mechanicsburg. Both gentlemen are well known and practical business men, and they mean business. Their office is in the Second building, opposite the Court house, but Mr. Rupp will continue to reside at Mechanicsburg.

Bill Hende, Letter Hender, Develops. In fact any kind of news and attractive printing—done at short notice at the CARLISLE GAZETTE OFFICE.

Mr. Jacob Stover has been quite ill with pneumonia but is on a fair way to recovery.

Mr. Levi Dullhommer has taken up his residence with his sister, Mrs. Backwater.

Legislature Adjourns.

The Legislature adjourned at 2 p. m. on Thursday. State Senator Miller, who arrived home in this place, said it was a long and exciting session, and that he had slept for twenty-four hours. They failed to elect a United States Senator. The total appropriation of $1,000 was passed and is now in the hands of the Governor.

S. R. Murray, the newspaper correspondent, was present at the closing session. He too was up all night. He says it was a hot session, and that it kept one man busy turning back the clock Thursday afternoon. The Legislature is to adjourn at noon, and as they were three hours and twenty minutes late, the clock had to be kept turned back.

Planning Mill Sold.

Millard F. Thompson, assignee, sold the Vance & Company Planning mill, at this place, to H. G. Besten, for $21. It is subject to a mortgage which makes the price about $5,700.

Indian and Bicycle.

Walter Bigler, a pupil of the Carlisle Indian School, stole a bicycle at that institution. He was handled while on the street, promptly arrested, taken before Justice Brinton and bound over for court.

Herman Berg, Jr., Honored.

The Democratic Committee on Wednesday named County Chairman Berg by electing him division chairman. His rival for the place was Dr. Fritcher, of Harrisburg.

Advertising Expenses.

The publication which elicits its advertisements and does not admit dishonest and respectable advertisements is watching the best interest of its honest advertisers. The publication which does not do this is like a society woman who would expect to gain a position in society by inviting not only the best people to her home but also the semi-savages.

Organ Recital by George Nevil Brandon.

The audience that attended the organ recital given by George Nevil Brandon, on Thursday evening, was very deserving to that gentleman. The program was well selected and equally well rendered. He was assisted by Miss Edith S. Prince, mezzo-soprano, and Wm. Kronenberg, violinist.

Bill Not Defeated.

An error has got into print concerning Senator Miller's bill in the Senate. It was not defeated but passed the Senate and has gone to the House.

MEETING OF COUNCIL.

The Carlisle Town Council held its monthly meeting on Thursday evening, all members present except Messrs. Bretz and Dixon.

C. P. Humrich, Esq., presented a petition for the opening of Locust Alley from College street, westward to the borough limits, cutting through the Dickinson luncheon athletic field. Mr. Humrich urged the opening of alley and the removal of the athletic field, holding that the field is a nuisance and endangers the lives and properties of citizens residing in that vicinity.

R. W. Woods, Esq., offered an ordinance repealing a former ordinance and permitting a colored garage to be laid out within the borough limits. He commended a plot owned by Robert Thompson as a proper site.

Samuel A. Jordan advocated the use of the H. G. Besten plot and presented a petition bearing three hundred names.

MONTHLY REPORTS.

Fire Marshall Morris reported four fires during March, and asked that smoke and fireproofers be reported for the firemen.

Chief Burgess Fought reported ten dollars fines for the month.

Chief of Police Shearer reported: Summons and arrests, 21; burglars, 14; lights out, 2; sewer at the Mansion House in bad condition.

Treasurer McCartney reported: Amount received, $1,608.55; amount paid out, $1,021.11; amount in sinking fund, $186.45; balance in sinking fund, $32.16.

CHEAPER LIGHT WANTED.

Councilman Lindner criticized the bill for lighting the streets. The price paid for the electric street light is $90 per light. He said some other towns the street lights cost only $60 and Council should demand a lower rate. He suggested that some towns own their water and light plants. He and some other manufacturers had secured lower rates by threatening to erect gas tanks of their own. President Bretz said he had offered a motion some time ago to make a new tax for lighting.

TAX INCREASED ONE MILL.

Councilman Lehigh reported an ordinance making the tax for the coming year six mills, the same as last year, but this was amended and the rate increased to seven mills.

Councilman Porter submitted plans for the remodeling of the council chamber. A new steel ceiling will be placed in the room. Mollie Piche's grave was ordered to be dug up.
