Arbutus.

No April showers yet!

An unprecedented cold spring.

Watch out for Spring fever germs!

The new cottage is beginning to grow.

Patches on the Athletic Field are sodding.

Miss Cochran is home for a few days' rest.

Mr. George Foulke's house is getting a new spring dress.

The corners and worn edges of the grassplot are being sodded.

As we go to press the Syracuse baseball team are in game with our boys.

The pride of the small boy now is to get a curve on his pitch.

Careful! When a girl gets to be Mrs. she objects to being Missed.

The hens are busy laying enough easter eggs for our regiment of eaters.

The Home Monthly for April, has an illustrated article on our school.

Little Edmond Wheelock looks like a small Professor in his scholarly glasses.

Mr. Morrett went to Bucks county Wednesday to bring into line a wandering boy.

Zenia Tibbetts, Daisy Wasson and Nancy Cornelius have returned to Downingtown.

Mr. and Mrs. Van der Mey, of Philadelphia, have taken the places of cook and assistant.

We were beaten at baseball by the Mercersburg team, on Wednesday, by a score of 11 to Miss Richenda Pratt returned to Wilson yesterday after a restful and enjoyable Easter vacation.

Superintendent Hall, of the Perris School, California, dropped in upon us and left the next train.

If a boy or girl in the country would like to make an EASY dollar send us TEN names for the Red Man and four dollars Keep one.

Susan Gibbs has received the appointment of Assistant-Seamtress at the Pottawotamie School, Indian Territory, and has left for said post of duty.

Miss Miles and Miss Peter will attend the Invincibles to-night; Misses Paull and Robertson the Standards; Miss Luckenbach and Mrs. DeLoss the Susans.

Mrs. Pratt is the recipient of two handsome Moqui placques, one made by the Indians called Friendly and the other by the hostiles. They were sent by Mrs. Dandridge who is at the Keams' Canyon School, Arizona, and they are greatly valued.

Luther Standingbear who was one of our first students twenty years ago, from the Sioux country, has a daughter in school in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Kensler have been the recipients of a handsome wedding gift of solid silver forks and dessert, table and teaspoons from their friends at the school.

Richard H. Pratt, Jr., of Steelton, spent Sunday at the school. When John Powlas whom Dick loves, is walking with his little friend, we see the "long and short of it."

Mr. Jordan after several weeks of cooking, about which there were numerous compliments from the student body, is out again at the spring work of clearing up, repairing walks, etc.

Abram Isaac, 1900, has gone to his home, while his friends at the school miss his genial presence. Abram is a good violinist, a good clarinetist, a good carpenter and a good and faithful friend.

A team made up of boys from the small boys' quarters have beaten one from the large boys' quarters once, and are quite proud of the achievement. There are some interesting games these evenings on the south grounds between the scrub teams, and a goodly spirit of rivalry is being stirred up.

Dr. Eastman stopped at the the Osage Agency on his way back from Arizona, and brought with him four Osage girls. It being his first visit to that agency he has considerable to say of the different conditions there from those he has met with at other agencies. The Doctor was kindly received by the Indians and whites wherever he went.

Melinda Metoxen was at home from three to five o'clock, on Saturday last in her pretty room, assisted by Ada Sockbeson, Josephine Jannies and Cynthia Lambert. The guests were Mrs. Dorsett, Mrs. Canfield, Miss Weekly, Miss Kowuni, Susan Gibbs, Sophia Americanhorse, Master O-hi-ye-sa Eastman and Mrs. DeLoss. There were games and refreshments. As the only young man present, Baby O-hi-ye-sa bore himself very graciously.

We are grieved to record the death of another of our Alaska pupils—Tomicock. She was patient, gentle and brave. She bore her illness in silence. Her smile was ready even when too weak to talk. She was conscious to the end. She asked Miss Barr to hold her, and breathed her last while resting in those kindly arms, ever ready to help one in distress. Annebuck was her chosen friend and close companion, and the bereft child has the sympathy of all who knew the tender and sisterly feeling between the two.
