GROUNDS

Graduation Song

As the voyager turns with a love-longing gaze
To the hills that are fading behind,
How swift come the thoughts of his earlier days,
To people the chambers of mind.
Fond memory gilds every summit of blue,
With the flush of a sunset of gold,
And the vision still lingers when lost to the view,
Old ocean holds all in his fold.

And thus as our bark we're unmooring to-day,
And Hope breathes a flattering wind,
No joys in the future regret can allay,
For those we are leaving behind.
All brightly they glitter in memory's sheen,
As cliffs in the tints of the morn.
No pleasures before us more dimless and keen,
Than those that shall never return.

But Duty calls onward. A sigh for the past,
And a cheer for the great gone before!
Still upward and onward we'll climb, till at last
The laurels are ours which they wore.
Here's a hand, brothers all! with the heart as we go,
And a friendship we never must stain,
And these halls that as students we may ne'er again know,
Hereafter shall hear of our fame.

America

My country 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the Pilgrim's pride,
From ev'ry mountain side
Let freedom ring.

My native country, thee,
Land of the noble, free,
Thy name I love;
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills;
My heart with rapture thrills
Like that above.
