

The documents in this file relate to circumstances in the death of Seth Clear Eyes, who was on his way home from the Carlisle Indian School. Due to the sensitive nature of these papers, they are not being made available on this site as a PDF file, but we invite interested researchers to contact us via email for a copy of the documents.