7902
Storekeeper
Kensler.

WASHINGTON. APR 23 1909

Moses Friedman, Esq.,
Superintendent Carlisle Indian School,
Carlisle, Pennsylvania.

Sir:

I am informed that your storekeeper, Mr. August Kensler, is unavoidably charged with exceptionally heavy duties aside from his care of property, many of which naturally attach on account of his long service and intimate knowledge of all transportation matters; and that he has no assistant.

It is essential for good administration that in each department there be some one who can carry on the work in the absence of the person primarily charged. Mr. Kensler should have an assistant or understudy - some one whom he can train into the duties and upon whom he can rely for general assistance or emergency. The salary should be at least $600 to start, promotion to be earned. Have you anyone in mind for this place? As it is noted that your salary roll covers fifty-three per cent of the entire running cost of the school, it does not seem wise to increase this percentage; but by some re-arrangement you can probably work in this position. Its importance is sufficient to warrant a cut somewhere else if that is the only way to relieve the storekeeper.

Very respectfully,
