Hon S. A. Hayt

Commissioner of Ind Affairs

Washington D.C.

Sir,

Under the authority of your "Telegram" of today, and letter, to-day received from General Armstrong advising me that any addition of boys was not particularly acceptable, I have the honor to inform you that I retain here the six boys and girls from Sisseton Agency and two Menominee boys from Green Bay Wisconsin, as originally ordered by the Department for Carlisle.

This gives an aggregate of ^{one hundred and fifty eight} (158) thirty nine of whom are females.

Very Respectfully

Your Obedient Servant

R. H. Pratt
