Friend Capt. Pratt

There is a prospect of a delegation of Indians going from this Reserve to Washington to consult with the Indian Dept. in reference to their future, and a portion of the delegation will advocate a removal to the Indian Territory. We think more than half of the tribe desire to remain here and receive their lands as their future homes. Our boys who are at the Carlisle school of course feel interested in the result of this consultation and Charley Kihga a son of one of the Chiefs has expressed a desire to accompany the delegation and use his influence towards remaining in Nebraska.

Inspector Haworth will accompany them and hence there is no necessity for the Agent to go. And we do not know what route he ^(the conductor) will take. but should he pass through your section of Country I think it would be advantageous to have Charles Kihiga accompany them if there will be time sufficient to make arrangements after we know the time for starting. I understand Chief Kihiga considers his son better qualified to judge in this case than himself, and the influence exercised by his presence may be potent for good.

I know nothing of Charles Kihiga only by reputation and upon request I have given my impression in the case as presented.

Should the proposition meet with their approval and the route selected favor the project we might telegraph the time when when they leave here; but I fear Inspector Haworth will chuck it too much out of the way.

I suppose Charlie has some funds at his command.

Should they fail to go that way it is probable they will visit Carlisle on the return trip

Very Respectfully
