Sir Secy. of the Interior

Washington U.S.

Dear Sir

I hear a great many of our children are dying off at the School at Carlisle now I have one son there I am an old man and I want to see my son once more before he dies. I want you to give me permission to go to Carlisle and see my son

I will pay my own expenses both going and coming if you will let me go.

I am your friend

D. W. Strike
