Sir:-

In connection with previous correspondence on the subject of sending Indian youths between the ages of 12 and 22 years, now at Fort Marion, Florida, to the Carlisle Indian School, I have the honor to invite attention to the inclosed copy of telegraphic correspondence between the Adjutant General and the Commanding General Division of the Atlantic, from which it appears that instructions have been issued to send all Indian youths, between the ages above indicated, now at Fort Marion, to the Indian School at Carlisle, Pa.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
Yours
G. B. Curtis

Secretary of War.

The Honorable
The Secretary of the Interior.
