Carlisle, Pa., May 4, 1887

To the Hon.

The Commis. of Indian Affairs,
Washington, D.C.

Sir:-

The Presbyterian Board of Home Missions, which last year bought from us, under your permission, fifty (50) uniform suits for their school at Sitka, Alaska, make application for fifty (50) more suits, smaller sizes. I find I can make these at a small profit for \$8.⁰⁰ per suit, and they request me to furnish the 50 suits at this price. I, therefore, respectfully request your authority to make and sell to the Presbyterian Board of Home Missions, for their school at Sitka, fifty (50) uniform suits of sky-blue Kersey at \$8.⁰⁰ per suit. My letter to you dated May 17, '86 which is of much smaller sizes, will be fully $.75^{\text{c}}$ per suit in
