Hon. J. D. C. Atkins,

Commissioner of Indian Affairs,

Washington, D.C.

Sir:

On the 1st of March last I wrote you in reference to a harnessmaker for Supt. Scott at Fort Stevens. To that letter I have had no reply. I forward you his letter of the 1st instant. I make no change in my sentiments and am perfectly willing to send the student at once if you order. He is willing to go.

Very respectfully,

Capt. & Supt.

Sir:

Referring to your letter of March 1, 1887, concerning the sending of a pupil to this school to take charge of the harness shop, I have to ask if he will be sent. The position has been authorized for another year and unless I can secure one from your school must look elsewhere.

Very Respectfully,
George W. Scott
Superintendent
