January 26, 1889.

To the Honorable,
The Comm'r of Indian Affairs,
Washington, D. C.

Sir:

The father and mother of Mark Penoi, a lad at this school from Laguna, New Mexico, have died, leaving a quantity of stock, horses, cattle and sheep, and the officials of the village recommend that Mark be ~~xxxx~~ ~~xxxx~~ allowed to come home and look after the property, as he is old enough to do so and there are several small children, whose interests are at stake in the proper care of the property. I therefore recommend that I be allowed to send Mark home and be provided at once with a ticket hence to Laguna, New Mexico.

Very respectfully,

your obedient serv't

R. H. Pratt
