Hon. S. H. Albro,
Supt. Indian Schools,
Washington, D. C.

Sir:-

I forward herewith application of Miss Carrie E. Morse for appointment as teacher in this Institution, and copies of endorsements by Col. Francis W. Parker, formerly of Quincy, Mass., now of Englewood, Ill., T. F. Murdock, Principal of State Normal School, Bridgewater, Mass., Mary E. Dearborn, Coddington School, Quincy, Mass., and Ella M. Sterling, Hampton College, Louisville, Ky.

I have been at some pains to make personal inquiry of friends where Miss Morse has taught, and these endorsements from well known educators are more than sustained by personal letters.

I have been in the practice for some years of bringing teachers to the school and having them see the place and work, thus affording me a chance to look them over. I have done so in Miss Morse's case, and from such personal observation, and the indorsements received, I can fully and most heartily recommend her for appointment as teacher at $540.<sup>00</sup> per annum, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Miss Mabel Crane, to take effect today, forwarded herewith.

Very Respectfully
Your Obedt. Servt.

Capt. Pratt,

Indian Industrial School,

Carlisle, Pa.,

Dear sir:

For two years past I have known Miss Caroline E Morse of Quincy Mass. in the school room and can most thoroughly endorse her as a natural teacher, whose original methods have been enriched by special Primary training. She well understands how to develop the child's mind. I have known her pupils to be very fond of her and to enjoy their work under her care. I have known the parents to be very appreciative of their children's progress. From personal friendship, I know her to be earnest, sincere, loyal to teaching as a sacred trust. I have frequently heard her express interest in the education of the Indians and remember that in '87 she visited the school at Hampton, Va. while spending a day, for pleasure at Point Comfort. From these facts, I do most cordially recommend Miss Morse for any vacancy in your appointment at Carlisle, and believe that both her interest and heart will crown her labor there with rich success.

Very truly
