To the Hon.

The Com. of Ind. Affairs.

Washington, D.C.

Sir:-

Referring to Office letter "808-'90 an. 21936" relative to the cost of transfer of six Indian pupils to the Carlisle School. I desire to say that- at this date I am unable to give the amount of funds necessary for such expense. I am willing to obtain and advance, the amount needed and place before you vouchers for your acceptance or rejection. I hope to be able to start in 8 or 10 days. The school will be left in charge of a trustee and able person.

Very respectfully
George C. Linn
Supt.
