To the Hon.

Commr. of Indian Affairs,
Washington, D.C.

Sir:

In forwarding my nominations of Employees for balance of current fiscal year, I would call attention to the fact that all, except two, have been in the service of the School, and have thus proven their worth.
Catherine L. Thompson, nominated for Asst.
Laundress, is selected by my very efficient
Laundress, who has known her many years.
The dining-room Matron has never satisfied my expectations, and I have gone among the best patrons of our out pupils and selected Miss A.M. Cheney on their warm recommendation.
I depended also largely on my judgment after a full conference, and her remaining with us several days. This branch has been especially weak in practical instruction in cooking.

The old Employes, I trust, will need no farther endorsement than that I give in the column of remarks.

Very Respectfully

Your Obedt. Serv't.
