Carlisle, Pa., September 29, 1890.
Hon R. V. Bell.

Acting Commissioner of Ind Affrs.
Washington. D. C.

Dear Sir:

On the 23th inst. I appeared before you. And said that I want to work on my own farm. Asking you to help me. I must say that I am glad and thank you for what you said in regard of my starting a farm. After I came back here and found that it was not the right time for me to start farming in the fall. I asked Capt Pratt if I can remain here until next spring. He said "yes if you want to" But now. Dear Mr Bell I have thought that I would leave before you the matter to consider of my remaining here this fall.

Very respectfully
William Morgan.
