Dear Genl Pratt:-

How-ard Logan has been waiting patiently for many weeks for orders from Professor Rich to join him at Fort McDowell. This vigorous climate is too much for his throat this winter, and I am anxious that his case should be attended to at once. If an appointment elsewhere. He is too bright and good a fellow to lose without making a hard fight. As an evidence of his work, Prof. Rich is not going to need him I think it probable I can get him an appointment elsewhere. He is too bright and good a fellow to lose without making a hard fight. As an evidence of his work, I am anxious that his case should be attended to at once. If weeks for orders from Professor Rich to join him at Fort McDowell.

Please let me hear from you at once.

Yours respectfully,

Dear General:-

Howard Logan has been waiting patiently for many weeks for orders from Professor Rich to join him at Fort McDowell. This vigorous climate is too much for his throat this winter, and I am anxious that his case should be attended to at once. If Prof. Rich is not going to need him I think it probable I can get him an appointment elsewhere. He is too bright and good a fellow to lose without making a hard fight. As an evidence of his work, ask for my last Quarterly Report of the School, which you will see is very large and was compiled by him with very little help. Please let me hear from you at once.

Yours respectfully,

Capt. 10th Cav'y., Supt.
