Sir:-

Replying to your letter of 28th inst., marked Education, #33047 - 90, enclosing letter from Hal J. Cole, U. S.
Indian Agent, Colville Agency, Wash., relative to Charles W.
Williams, formerly pupil of this school, who asks situation as assistant teacher, I have to respectfully inform you that he is known to us as Charles Wolf. He betrayed no special force or capacity while here. He has a pleasant, kindly disposition but I should say is not fit for a teacher. He would mend, and, under the direction, make shoes fairly well.

Enclosure is returned herewith.

Very respectfully,

Your obt. servt.,
