The letter of Mrs. Duncan, of Tanglewood, and its enclosures are herewith returned. It seems a pity that a good, is not open somewhere for these sensible youth to get out into practical lines, as they so much desire, and thus to break away from the purely literary lines which are pursued in all efforts to educate these Indians outside the reservation.

Very respectfully,

Your obt. servant,

Sir:

The letter of Mrs. Duncan, of Tahlequah, and its enclosures are herewith returned. It seems a pity that a door is not open somewhere for these sensible youth to get out into practical lines, as they so much desire, and thus to break away from the purely literary lines which are pursued in all efforts to educate these Indians outside the reservation.

Very respectfully,

Your obt. servt.,
