Sir:-

I return herewith the letter of Mrs. Crow in relation to her grandson and enclose report of my school physician in regard to him. While he is not a very strong or healthy student, nor is he at all bright or progressive, there is no real need of his returning home on account of his health.

Yours truly,

R. H. Pratt

Sir - In the case of Carlo Frenck. I find nothing to justify me in recommending his return home.
during the last year he has had occasional attacks of headache which readily yield to a cathartic. And he expresses himself as all right. There is no evidence of organic trouble.

Respectfully

W. Dixon M.D.
