INSURANCE DEPARTMENT.

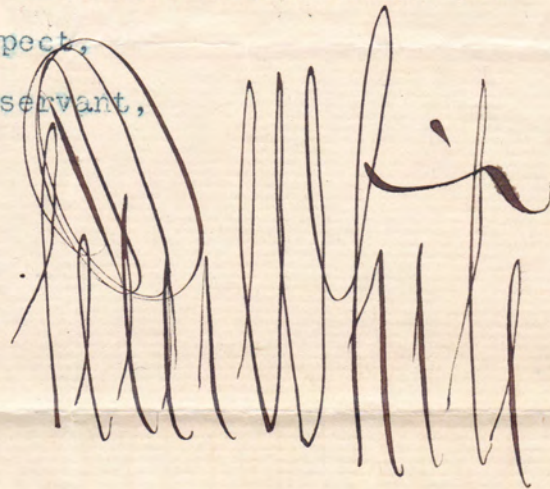

MARQUETTE, MICH., Sept. 19th. 1891

Honorable Commissioner of Indian Affairs,
Washington, D.C.

Dear Sir:--- There is a young Indian here named John Moses about seventeen years of age. He has been at school at some place in Indiana he told me the name but I have forgotten it. He is poor; has no money and no relatives; speaks good English and can read tolerably well.

He is very anxious to complete his education. I write this to ask you if he cannot be sent to the school at Carlisle, Penn. at the expense of the Government. With great respect,

Your obedient servant,

He is a Chippewa
