INDIAN INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL,
CARLISLE, PA.

March 2, 1892.

I hereby certify that in accordance with instructions contained in Office Letter marked A, -3513 - 92. I acted with the Board appointed by Capt. R. H. Pratt, Superintendent, in making a survey of the property above designated, and agree with the classifications and recommendations made with the following exceptions: viz.,

I recommend that the two horses and one mule be shot to death, instead of being sold, for the reasons set forth in my special Report.

I further certify that all the property mentioned under Class 4 was thoroughly destroyed in my presence and the necessary affidavits of witnesses were made before me.
