Sir:

I enclose a note received from nine students of this school, who are members of the Chippewa tribe, of White Earth, who desire to have their annuities. If it is otherwise all right, I regard them as good worthy young men and entitled to have their application favorably considered.

Very respectfully,

Your obt. servt.,

Capt. R. H. Pratt.

Dear Sir:

Please arrange, so we can receive our payment
which comes annually.

The "White Earth boys" receive payment annually.

Payment came off on the 20th of November 1891.

There are <sup>nine</sup> eight of us here at school and one out in the country who is Charley Mason.

You will find the names on the other page.
