To the Honorable,
The Commr. of Ind. Affairs,
Washington, D. C.

Sir:--

Replying to yours of the 30th of June, marked Education, 22,860, in reference to Mary and Nora Cushaway, and enclosing a letter from their father, I have respectfully to advise you that the money has been received for their home-going, and I have concluded to let them go, and they leave today. The promise Mr.
Cushaway alleges to have been made by Mr. Standing is untrue.
Mr. Cushaway is a poor man, and I have endeavored to get him to save his money, and put it into cattle and hogs instead of transportation. I let one of his daughters go home last year on the same pretext. His want of wisdom in the matter leads me to apprehend that the outcome of the attempts at educating his daughters will amount to much.

Very respectfully,

R.H. Pratt
