The Honorable,

I hereby certify that I have been the attending physician of Miss M. S. Phillips since February 14th, 1893. On that day she was seized with an apoplectic fit, from the effects of which she recovered in about two weeks. On March 3rd a similar attack prostrated her. At present her condition is such as to compel complete rest and freedom from the duties and anxieties of her position. I am of the opinion that a vacation now will enable her to resume her work in good health.
