Sir

please inform me how it is about the letter I sent to you of my grand daughter at Carlisle school. I just received a letter from her, she is in a great distress in daing er please ~~keeps~~ keeps her from suffering if she is yet alive. keeps her from trouble and comfort her to cheer. how did he see the letter? I have told you they are afraid of him they get punish every time he hear some one write how they are. he should not ought to seen it unless she was seen to, I am so sorry for her. she is a good girl. she may be suffering or locked up now if she is still living. please send her home, she needs a help no time to delay. please let me hear soon how it is and about her and oblige

very respectfully
M. M. Kennedy
