Carlisle, Pa.

July 15th, 1893.

To the Honorable,

The Commr. of Indian Affairs,
Washington, D. C.

Sir:--

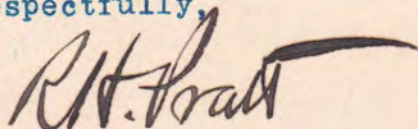

My descriptive statement of the number and proposed changes in school employes for the present fiscal year, was forwarded, but the requirements of your circular of July 1st, marked Education, and directing that a report of the "capabilities and competency of all employes in the classified list who are on probation" be furnished were not complied with, this being inadvertently omitted.

Mr. Bakeless, the Principal Teacher, though with us only a brief time, I have every reason to think will prove invaluable in his position. He is certainly competent, and is indefatigable in his efforts to make himself familiar with the duties of his place, and to direct matters in his department.

Miss Birch, the only other Civil Service appointee, was the subject of my letter to you of June 21st, which fully explains why her name was not placed upon the statement.

No other Civil Service appointees were on probation.

Very respectfully,

Capt. 10th Cavy., U.S.A., Supt.
