Dear Mr. Cleveland -

About a month ago, I wrote Mrs. Cleveland, soliciting her mediation for some young Indians of our State, who must now go out into the world - girls, at least, of sixteen years, with the scant knowledge they possess of house-work etc, are not such desirable servants, that white house-wives are waiting to secure them as servants - the boys might fare better - but with only dis-parent relatives, (who would not care for them in infancy) to go to, the outlook is very dismal for these nine girls and three or four boys, who are now sisters, and must leave the shelter of The Thomas Boston Asylum - What are we to do, send them out, at the beginning of winter to almost certain want, and possible degradation, because Mr. Secretary Smith, considering N.Y. perfectly able to furnish its own manual training schools, will not let us.

(The Board of Managers of The Thomas Orphan Asylum) send you one to fill vacancies in Carlisle & Hampton? Of course we all think New York should, long before this, have had its Manual Training School & Farm for its young Indians from its eight Reservations - and it will have very soon - we all hope - but until the Rev. Dr. Hubbell of Buffalo and his co-adjutors succeed in their efforts towards this end - may we not, Mr. President, be allowed to send two or at least, to Carlisle and Hampton each year? The

Dear Sir,

Yours of the 13th inst. comes to hand in the absence of Capt. Pratt; you will not therefore hear from him for some days yet - but I do not apprehend any trouble provided you have the President's authority in the matter - and the town folks understand it to be a case of "let alone" when they enter -

As things now stand we are prohibited from receiving any additional N York Indians by a Department order notwithstanding the applications are many - I hope there will be found a way out.

Respectfully Yours

OFFICE OF SUPERINTENDENT,

Carlisle, Pa., August 27th 1894.

Rev. George Runciman, Versailles, New York.

Dear Brother:

When I was in Washington I spoke to both the Commissioner of Indian Affairs and the Superintendent of Schools in regard to your letter. They both said that since there had been a ruling of the Department that no more New York pupils could come to Carlisle it would require a contrary ruling to enable me to comply with your request. If Mr. Cleveland favors Mrs. Tiff's request it will be all right. You know there always has been and always will be room for more at Carlisle.

Yours sincerely,

R. H. Hall
