Sir:--

Replying to your letter of August 21st, marked "Education, #34679," enclosing a letter from Miss M. L. Silcott, teacher at this school, with Doctor's certificate, asking for sick leave, and directing my recommendation and report, I have to respectfully inform you that Miss Silcott's services will not be needed until the first of September---the date on which she says she will be able to resume duty,--and I would recommend that she be granted the sick leave from the expiration of her present leave, until that date. Her application, and the certificate, are herewith returned.
