

United States
Indian Industrial School,

Cap. R. H. Pratt, Carlisle, Pa., Nov. 22, 1895
Sir:

I hereby resign as Physician at this school and in the Indian Service, to date January 8, 1896, to enable me to avail myself of a favorable opportunity for entering private practice in Chicago.

You desired me to go West after children in August last and in order to do so I was called from my vacation twenty four days before it expired, and now wish to avail myself of the balance of leave due and also the fifteen days due me for this year, thirty nine days in all, beginning December 1, 1895 to include January 8, 1896 date resignation takes effect.

Very respectfully
Carlos Montezuma
School Physician.
